

“Flight at Night” by Avery Howe – Fayetteville

Avery Howe is a seventh grade student at Wellwood middle school. Avery has always loved creative writing and reading. It wasn't until her seventh grade teacher, Mrs. Miller, showed her all different types of intriguing poetry from different authors that she really began to appreciate a good poem. That is when Avery started to write her own poem to enter into this contest.