

“Taking Flight” by Chadani Timsina – Syracuse

I would not have ever gotten the opportunity to write this poetry and become a finalist if not for my family. Their bravery on making a move to Syracuse from Nepal was what got me to this point and I am forever grateful.