

“Airbound Dad” by Mary Slimmer – Oswego

Mary Slimmer taught for 14 years in the Oswego City School District as well as building principal in Oswego City School District for seven years. She facilitated adult and children’s writing workshops and published a young adult novel, The Lighthouse in Grove Park School. She taught at Sheldon Institute at SUNY Oswego and is an adjunct professor at SUNY Oswego supervising student teachers. She continues to write poetry and stories for her family.